“ Marie, you were a wonderful woman, mother, wife and friend. You always thought of everyone before yourself. You were a kind and giving soul. I truly enjoyed our talks. I will miss you dearly. I know you are in such a beautiful place now and you can guide your family now with so much ease and grace, much more so than ever before. They are so truly lucky to have an angel like you watching over them. I know they are all grieving over the lose of you and it will take so much time for them to get their selves back, but they will because you will be there, right there, guiding them and nudging them in every way that they need. You were a beautiful soul Marie and I am so glad to have had the pleasure of being able to call you a friend, and really almost a family member, is how I think of you. I love you Marie Gonzales, you will always be in our hearts, rest with our Lord Jesus Christ now and to your family, know that she will NEVER leave your side NEVER she will always be next to you, always and forever be by your side, all of you ❤️❤️❤️❤️👼👼👼👼❤️❤️❤️❤️
