“ Nana, where do I start. Your were like a mom to me for many many years. Use to spend a lot of my time at your house. Remember you always in the kitchen cooking and standing at the sink washing rice. I think of you everytime I cook rice. Always will remember you. If you are not in heaven, no one is. You are an angel, my angel. To the Juneau family, I am so sorry for your loss. Rest in peace Nana, I will always love you. Cynthia Moody

“ Love you Nana, I know your now where you want to be. Soon we will all be there visiting each other for eternity. Now you can shake those legs dancing for Jesus with no more pain. I'm sure all those who went before you are soooo happy to see you. Yet those left behind can only hold onto the treasures of knowing you until we meet again.
