

Marylou LaRae Bunting

December 24, 1932 - July 7, 2016

Marylou LaRae Bunting peacefully entered into eternal rest at the age of 83 on July 7, 2016. She was born in Sioux Falls, South Dakota and lived for many years in St. Louis, MO before making her way to New Orleans with her now deceased husband, Frank Bunting. New Orleans was her home for 35 years. She truly loved the city enjoying all the festivals, particularly Jazz Fest and Mardi Gras in which she costumed many times with her daughters. She enjoyed her witch costume with plenty of green makeup up on Halloween and taking her grandchildren trick or treating. She worked as a medical transcriptionist all her life and was president of the chapter in New Orleans. She had an ear for music and played the saxophone when she was younger and later became a parishioner of St. Philip Neri Church, singing in the choir for many years. Survived by her five daughters, Suzy Neely, Marty Bonck (Byron), Sally Epperson (Randy), Lynn Nappi (Jimmy), and Lillian Bunting. Also survived by seven grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

Friends and relatives are invited to visit with the family on Wednesday, July 13, from 1-2 p.m. with a mass immediately following at L.A. Muhleisen & Son, 2607 Williams Blvd, Kenner, LA 70062.

“ Hi, Mary Lou, this is Carole Lumpkin You now have the biggest Picture Screen of all. I will miss our going to the Movies and our group Luncheons w/50s club and Pulmonary Rehab.. Hope you keep your eye on me in that golden place. Also I would like to send my gentle remembrance to Suzie, Sissy and all of her daughters and family. She still got around and was surely "independent". As she stated that is what she wanted. May the Merciful Lord heal you wiith his gentle touch.
