

Matthew "Matt" Anthiany Bonomo

November 15, 1990 - December 3, 2022

Matthew "Matt" Anthiany Bonomo was taken way too soon on December 3, 2022 in Tangipahoa Parish. Matt, age 32, was a life long resident of St Bernard, LA.

Matt leaves behind his loving wife, Jaymie Rotts Bonomo and is survived by his parents, Scott (Eunice) Bonomo and Joann Messa; his grandmother, Elizabeth Bonomo; his great uncle, William Tittle; his nanny, Beverly (Henry) Boudreaux; his brothers, Hunter (Amanda) Giusti and Cameron Bonomo; his in-laws, Eric Rotts, Mary Jayne (Bobby) Shahine, Aimee (Randy) Casiano and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Henry Peter Bonomo, Jr.

He worked at Tulane University and enjoyed cutting grass, repairing machinery and helping those around him. St Bernard Parish is at a significant loss without this hard-working and compassionate human being. Many will miss his warmth and genuine love for helping others.

Per Matt's request, no funeral or visitation services will be held.

“ Matt, you were on of a kind - you were one of my employees that told me like it was, the good, the bad and the ugly. You kept it real, and I could depend on you to get anything done, even in the middle of the night. Your Tulane family and all those who worked with you are going to miss you very much. Thank you for your commitment, hard work, the jokes and the drama, the late nights, the weekends and all you did for this team. It is not going to be the same without you here. Jaymie - we will keep you in our prayers. I am so sorry for your loss. Thank you for sharing so much of him with the Tulane Facilities Family.

“ Matt was family to us. He treated and loved my kids, like his own family. He was always a phone call away, whenever we needed him. And he always made us laugh. Carson loved riding his tractor, and doing things with his Uncle Matt, when my Husband was working. I'm going to miss you riding down my street, blowing the horn, and waving at us. And most of all, I'll miss you Matt.

“ Matt you will be missed by so many . I myself hold tight to your tebbly bear hug I received from you at craves last Thursday night and how you would call me mama, and our last long conversation we had together. You always had a smile on your face and so happy all the time , if you seen someone needed a had you would just jump in . Just like you did when I replanted a garden you just took the shovel out my hand and said ok ma were do you want to start. Lol that is the fastest garden ive tackled.And you fixed a sprinkler for me. Im still in shock and I know your family and friends are as well. My prayers are with them all.. matt I know when we meet again there will be plush lawns for sure. May you rest in peace my sweet friend I already miss ya .

“ Matt was a life long friend of mine. He was the best man at my wedding, even though we were polar opposites on many things. Together we could make the impossible possible. Carson, my son, considered him his Uncle. Matt would regularly spend time with him while I was at work. Matt catered to his adventurous side and would teach him to be fearless. He would send me pictures and videos when he was with Carson that filled my heart with so much laughter and joy. I cherished every moment they were together!

Losing Matt leaves a hole that no one can fill. He will be remembered for his honesty, strength, compassion, and dedication to his friends and family. A bright light was put out to soon. Matt spent his life serving others even in his last moments. His neverending selflessness was unrivaled. He will never be beat or forgotten.
