“ Mr. Mel and Ms. Alma were neighbors of my in-laws. My husband Ricky and his brothers grew up with the Hibb's children. When we purchased the house next door, our children and Lisa's would play ever Sunday when they would come to visit her parents. Mr. Mel was always looking out for us. We became more like extended family than just neighbors. He was loving and kind. I really loved when he would bake birthday cakes for us. They not only tasted great but looked beautiful. Loosing him as my neighbor was our only regret when we moved to Montz. I believe he is enjoying his well deserved rest and eternal happiness in heaven. My prayer is that his family find comfort and peace. Rest in peace Mr. Mel💔. Love Ricky and Cheryl Diamond
