“ For a man that I never got to meet. I so wanted to visit you and have the time of my life in New Orleans. I have lost a really good friend and one of my favorite Game Players. Michael aka Terminator had alot of spunk and go juice to offer whether playing the game or showing the love for his family. He was a true Mobster. Many people say oh well that's just a game but I say it was so much more. We made a family in the game and me as the HitList GodFather actually was granted the opportunity become close with certain members and Mike was very loyal and I have nothing but honor for this man. I honestly believe that he would do anything for those he cared about. He even sent me one of those mardi gras cakes with the baby inside. I found the baby and passed it on to D.Davidson, another close friend of mike and I. I don't know if mike actually knew that that baby wish actually came true for Mr davidson but it did. He had a baby just this last summer. I will miss the magic and energy of talking to Mike. The HitList not only lost a friend but an important piece of our family. Angela please give me a call. This is Donny aka The HitList. My phone has changed and I lost Mike's number. I feel so bad that I haven't talked to him in a few months . I so had him on my mind. I remember when we played angela was my main competition on game time but I remember he so loved you . Recalling so many time him talking about going and spending time with his beautiful wife. I never even seen a picture of you, angela but he spoke so highly of you and loved you and his family so much. He loved the game alot but I could always see where his heart was when not with us. There will never be a bad memory that includes Mike. He was nothing but laughs. I feel like I have lost a brother. For those that were really his blood...I want you to know I feel your loss was huge because he was an amazing man.I could go on and on and I might return to post again. For being so far we were so close. I'm gonna miss you lots Mike aka HitList Terminatorx. I will be blazing tonight for you. I so wish I was toke toke passing to you. I'll be looking forward to your call Angela. I just got the message in chat that you was there. Thank You for Looking for me . He is very important and will be remembered forever.

“ I've never met Michael or his family personally but became friends online playing a game called Mobsters. I'll never forget the laughs we had playing. I remember him telling me how much he loved the game, how much he respected Donny the Godfather, and how much his mobster family "The HitList" meant to him. Angela knows. Mostly I remember him telling me every time we chatted how much he loved his wife Angela and their children. Some of my best memories was when he would instant message me and say, let's "bounty ball" this target and we wouldn't catch a single bounty laughing hysterically the entire time or when he was fighting a target and wanted to share the fun with me. I'm so sad today, really cannot believe he's gone. It was just the other day Don and I were talking about him... All I know is I'll never forget him or the memories and will miss him so much. My love, thoughts and prayers reach out to his family and friends.... Peace be with you Michael aka Hitlist Terminator X.
