“ Words can't explain the loss I feel.
You were taken from us too soon.
Heaven chose to give you wings and now it's time you flew.
I wish god had let you stayed.
I wish I could have more time with you,
one more hug.
But really I would love for all three of us to kick it on the couch one last time.
You will live on forever.
I'm never going to let the memories fade.
You'll always be in my heart.
You'll always be on my mind.
You're the best brother I never had,
the best friend anyone can ask for.
I love you my brother, my dawg, my twin.
I'm always going to celebrate your life,
Until we meet again.
This isn't a good bye this is a see you later.
rest easy
Big Mike

“ Mike, you are the light of “Ma” life.
It will never be dark. I'll hold you in my heart forever, knowing that someday soon, I'll hug you again, and never let you go. Light up the skies with your pure love , just as you did on earth. Love you Baby Boy with all my heart.

“ Mike Rivera.... He was the best friend a person could ever hope to know and have in their life...he accepted everyone with virtues and defects the same. He always knew how to make you laugh no matter how down or angry you are. I always had a pitcher of his Fave Lipton tea Made for him to enjoy with his (anti- cancerous cigarette) and great conversation. He loved his family and friends with all his heart. I will miss him forever. Hasta pronto mi hermano. Te amare siempre.

“ Michael, was world best Son, a mother could ever ask for. Had a heart toooooo big for a chest wall. Loved with all his heart and soul. A man that knew what he wanted, and worked hard to achieve his goals. Was the owner of a personality, to be desired. Honesty and fearless was his practice. Determined to face any challenge or new project as presented, calmly and with gentle bravery. Wanted to join the US military service, despite it wasn't my plans for my Baby Boy. Loved to eat; therefore, he didn't meet the requirements. He was a protector, the head of his house, the provider to his family, the love of his family. Respectful, happy, the light of my life, a joy and pride. Mike had another side, one that enjoyed his friends, respectful of each one, as is. Would do without to accommodate anyone needs. Not a good listener, but full of respect and pride for himself. His unspoken words would reveal “ I loved life and everyone in my world “ Lived with as if he was color blind. Enjoying every day , as it was his last one on this earth. He was my best friend, I'm sure his wife Nahomy was his. Leaving 4 of the most gorgeous children behind, to encourage life to go on. Mike , gained wings Oct 7th , 2021, much too early. Praying for comfort as he RIP. Baby Boy, mom loves you and your big brother, more than life. This was not to be this way. I'll see you, on that Glorious Day.

“ I don't recall an exact memory with Michael since I would go only on vacation to visit my parents. My dad was a pastor where his dad was a church member. I just recall him Being funny and energetic. May the Lord give all his family peace and keep the great hope of resurrection.
