She was born in Thibodaux LA on August 8, 1928 and spent the majority of her adult life in Marrero, LA. She was a graduate of Thibodaux High School in 1945. Being born during the depression and growing up during the war, she learned early on how to empathize with and have compassion for others. She learned how to do without, so another's needs could be met. She was well-known for her welcoming smile and noble generosity. She loved to be a blessing for anyone in need. She enjoyed volunteering at her church, Visitation of Our Lady and St. Joachim. She loved cooking and baking. She was recognized within the community for baking the most delicious cakes to order.

Everyone knew where to go for a good homemade cake and for peanut butter fudge that melts in your mouth. She will be missed by many. The Vicknair

Family would like to sincerely thank Wynhoven Healthcare Center and Notre Dame Hospice for making a difficult process manageable. Their compassion and empathy were more than we could have asked for regarding her care and comfort in her final days. May God bless each and every one of you as you were a blessing to our family.
