She was also Danny's tax season helper during tax time. Monique loved to cook and perfecting recipes, especially her custard pie. She tirelessly worked every Thanksgiving and Christmas to provide many dishes and beautiful memories. She loved traveling with her family to the Smoky Mountains. She enjoyed the silence of the mountains and the clashing water streams. She also loved music. She traveled to many cities to see The Moody Blues. She enjoyed watching her children grow and supporting them in their weekly bowling leagues to high school competition and dance classes and recitals to Hi-Stepper performances. She enjoyed the many hours talking to her children, talking about their adventures and social events. She raised three beautiful children and was so proud of them.

The family would like to thank the medical staff of the CCU at East Jefferson Hospital for all the medical services they provided to her. They are the unsung heroes in the medical field.

Oh, I believe in yesterday, as yesterday came suddenly. The day we meet again we will walk in peace.
