

Nathan Thomas Vogel

May 10, 1998 - July 23, 2025

Nathan Thomas Vogel came into this world on May 10, 1998 shortly after midnight on Mother's Day. This is a perfect example of his heart. He loved everyone with true compassion and tenderness. Even when he had nothing he would give the shoes off his feet to a stranger. He had a passion for music, art, poetry, and nature. He is the beloved son of Wendy and Danny Vogel. The sibling of Dan, Jackson, Luke(late) and Ella Vogel. The grandson of Tom and Teresa/Carol (late) Brader and Eileen and Val Vogel (late). The uncle of Eloise Vogel. And loved by a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, neighbors and friends.

The reality is mental health is one of the hardest beasts to navigate. He fought. We fought. The family would like to express their heartfelt appreciation to the Freedom House, JeffCare (Dr. Lee) and many others for their care and support during this time. The family hopes that the entire system will continue to improve and better serve those in need. In honor of him fight for those who deserve a voice and above all love everyone with all you have.

“ The world isn't quite as bright today, with Nathan's shining light no longer adding illumination to it. I always admired Nathan's tirelessly adventurous and often fearless soul. He saw life through a different lens and often found deep meaning and personal satisfaction in taking the path less traveled. Nathan was kind, gentle, caring and most importantly courageous. We will miss you, Nathan.

“ Hi, I am so deeply sorry for those lose of your beloved son. I went to Riverdale and while I was not close to Nathan, I remember his face very well. He always had such a bright, warm, kind smile and laugh. He just stood out because he was so friendly. May he rest in peace

“ Our beautiful Nate. So kind and considerate. I remember taking him to the Abita Farmers market and someone there having a great conversation with him, and gifting him with a lovely tie died bandana. His precious soul touched lives. He will always be thought of with so much love and sincerely missed. 💕

“ Today I am remembering the kind, generous and gentle soul that was Nate, that beautiful little boy with the great big smile. I was thinking back and remembering the solo trip he took and what a journey that was for such a young man and all the lives he touched and was touched by along the way. Remembering the incredible artist he was and the peace and joy it brought to him. Our hearts are broken today but our memories are full of the gift of Nathan.

“ I've had the privilege of growing up with Nathan and his siblings during my teenager years. Nathan was the one I spent time with the most during those years. When I was learning piano, he also was trying to learn from me. We talked about music, and I am happy that he developed a passion for it as he grew older. Even though our interactions were limited to just religious get togethers, Nathan was an important friend to me growing up.
