“ Christine and Nancy, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your mom. I will never forget the time she taught me how to properly take polish off my fingernails. I was standing at your kitchen island, vigorously using a q-tip on my nails and she came over and gave me a funny look. She handed me a paper towel and said something like, "Try using this - it'll go a lot quicker." She was one of a kind, and very special. My thoughts are with you and your families during this difficult time.

“ My sister Nelly was more to me then a big sister. She stepped in and took care of when our mother couldn't. I remember her making clothes for my barbies when I was little and sewing me a new outfit to wear. She was the most loving and giving person, sister, mother anyone could ask for. I will miss her dearly. May God bless her and bring her into the folds of his arms.
