“ My sincere condolence to your family. Was very shocked to hear the news 5 months later. I was a very good friend of Nolan since he served the Vacherie Lumber Co. in Vacherie, La. We would send Christmas cards every year. He would call me at least twice a year to catch up on each others lives. He will be greatly missed. He was a very sincere man. Geralyn Becnel

“ I had the privilege of working with Nolan at Orgill Brothers in the late 80's & early 90's. On several occasions Nolan drove to Memphis in his Lincoln with a trunk full of Crawfish which we prepared for friends and neighbors at my home in Memphis. What a prince of a man he was!! I am sad today knowing my friend is gone, Ironically Orgill is having their show in New Orleans this August and I was so looking forward to seeing my buddy once again. Rest in Peace Nolan, anyone that truly knew you, Loved you!
