There's no words 2 ease the pain, Oh but the memories we have of your Mom will remain n our hearts n mind 4ever. How I loved ur Mom, she was just like a Mom 2 us, n how Ms Nora Mae loved 2 talk, many many times Daddy would ask me 2 bring something 2 her n i would end up being there 4 at least 2hrs, n i didn't mind bc i loved sittin there talkin 2 her, n Daddy would ask me did u bring that 2 Nora Mae n i said yes n stood there 4 awhile, n Daddy would start laughin n shake his head n say she loves 2 talk, but i loved visitin with her. She was an amazin woman, n how she loved 2 eat her sweets. I can go on n on n fill pages of the wonderful person Ms Nora Mae is but i will hold those close 2 my heart. I WILL MISS U DEARLY MS NORA MAE, N OUR LONG TALKS, U will never b 4gotten may u R.I.P. N I know ur happy bc u have nomore pain I LUV U MS NORA MAE, LUV DEBBIE

“ *Jamie & Connie, didn't know your Mom personally however during our 5 mile walks years ago, I got to know her by your stories. I remember how much we laughed at those wonderful stories. Those will be the memories that keep her alive in your hearts. Keeping you and your families in my prayers. Sincerely,
Cindy Thomas*
