

Norma Reyes Bogran

June 5, 1925 - December 31, 2016

Norma Reyes Bogran passed away on December 31, 2016 at the age of 91. She loved cooking and traveling and was a voracious reader. She will be remembered for her wonderful smile, ageless face and mind. She graduated with top honors from Mount Carmel Academy in New Orleans in 1941 and from Mount St. Agnes College, Baltimore (now part of Loyola University, Maryland) where she was a boarding student while her father fulfilled his duties as Honduras ambassador to Mexico. She is preceded in death by her husband Luis Bogran-Fortin and is survived by her three beloved children Luis, Ofelia Cristina and Ricardo, two brothers and a sister. She died surrounded by most of her family and during her brief illness received terms of endearment from all of her nine adult grandchildren. She is also survived by three very young great grandchildren, many nieces and nephews.
