

Olga Marks Fasola

January 9, 1934 - April 15, 2024

Olga Ann Marks Fasola, 90 years old peacefully passed away on April 15th, 2024. Olga was born on January 9th, 1934, in New Orleans, LA. She was the daughter of Gus and Margaret Marks. Olga stated her “dreams in life” in her wedding announcement which said: “Big Wedding, Then Simple Life, Six Children, Their Goals.”

Olga married Anthony James Fasola Sr. (Tony, deceased), on August 28th, 1954. They then welcomed their children Tony Fasola Jr., Sharon Ann Fasola (deceased), Mark Fasola (deceased), Lisa Ann Fasola (Danny), Ann Marie Sequeira (Jay), and of course Missy Fasola.

Olga was known as Mimi to her grandkids Christopher Fasola, Nick Fasola (Brynn), Lauren Maenza (Vincent), Scott Sherman (Chelsea), Anthony Fasola III, and Brandon and Alex Sequeira. Olga was also Great Grandmother to Jude and Emma Fasola, Vincent and Joseph Maenza and Jackson, Kenneth and Rube Sherman.

Olga spent her whole life dedicated to raising her children and grandchildren with an avid devotion to sports in general but to her beloved Saints and Pelicans. However, her focus in life was caring for her special needs daughter Missy whom she loved unconditionally. Missy has been a lifetime member at St. Michaels Special School and therefore in lieu of flowers, donations can be made to St. Michaels Special School, located at 1522 Chippewa St., New Orleans, LA 70130.

Olga Ann will be missed greatly by all who knew her. May she rest in peace.

“ Dear family, here it is 2025 and I am just learning about my old friend's death. I also knew Tony and sometimes we would double date. I met Olga Ann when all the family lived across from St. Matthias. We were probably in 8th grade and stayed good friends throughout High school. She used to post a lot on fb, but it occurred to me recently that she had not put up anything in quite a while. I will pray for Olga, who showed us all how to deal with the ups and downs of life.
