“ While it has been many years since I last saw cousin Ollie, we did conect last year when she brought flowers to my father and her cousin Clarence Milligan's grave, so I got her address from her Cousin (my Aunt) Alamae Henley and mailed her a thank you card. Surely, as sweet as she was, she now rests eternally in the comfort of the arms of our Lord. We'll miss you cher cousin!

“ So sorry to hear of your Mother's passing Donna. My prayers are with you, and your family. How beautiful that she lived to be 80 years old and had time to enjoy her wonderful grown children and grandchildren.

“ Donald and Donna:

*You are both in our prayers, as is Ollie. She is finally free of all pain and agony and at peace. We feel that you are all like family to us, having been neighbors for almost 47 years. We shall miss Ollie very much, as will you. It's so hard to put into words exactly what we feel, but please know you have our deepest condolences and are here for you to offer any support and help you may need. All our love,
Cliff and Jeanie Francois*
