“ I still don't know what to say about losing a friend. This is very difficult to figure out what to say. I can't even fathom on how it is to lose a child, a cousin or brother. You were a good friend to me, we shared a lot of memories. One will stick with me forever and that will be when you came to pick tim and I up from my house after the Saints won against the Vikings. One of the best nights of my life right next to our night out with everyone from Tim, Edder, Richard, Irvin, Nico, Carlos, and Chris. We wish Lorenzo, Alex, Herb, Jeremy, Eric, Drea, Marlon and Arthur were there. But what was so special is that we were all so happy together, we danced, smiles, and I'll never forget myself for starting a super bowl chant and Omar you followed behind me with everyone else afterwards and had all of bourbon street singing "super bowl" behind this band. You mentioned it to me all night with a smile. I'll never forget you bro, we all had great times together, our whole group of friends will miss those days and will miss you. I know some of us moved away but life goes on and we all love you and miss you. No one will ever feel like how you mother feels but I know you'll be watching over her, much love to your family and to you my friend. This isn't a goodbye but a See ya Later, we'll all be together again one day ...RIP Omar Pena

“ I like how Omar always had a smile on every random time I saw him. He could make every conversation fun! He was such a kind happy person. He never failed to help a person in need. I remember he used to drive everybody around in the younger days. Thx for giving me the chance for allowing me to meet you.:) RIP! <3
