“ My name is Monique Poissenot & Mrs. Patricia Agnelly was not only my Father's only sibling, she was one if very few and elite Human Beings I have ever had the privilege of knowing and being awed by their Purity and Honor my entire life (Second only to Mildred Poissenot, her Mother). I have been in a state of complete and utter denial since she has departed from this world. She was held in the highest reverence by many, -not just myself- but because of her Keen sense of ethics and the high morals. (The truth was essential, and deceit was not in their vernacular) No Grey areas,just what was Right and Wrong. I miss them everynight with an ache in my heart, especially now that they are both gone. I am posting this now bc despite my denial, I dreamed of her. She was so Beautiful, even more so than when she was with us but, Because her Inner Beauty just radiated among her. In my dream, she comforted me; just as she had since I was a child and when I wanted nothing more to Grow-Up and be just like her and "Granny"(which is what my son Devin called Mildred). I know I will never be as extraordinary as they; They were Angelical, Saintly ,Women of Superior Standing, Pure of heart andwithout Greed, and most of all Honesty and Integrity. However, since the passing of my Grandmother, I have endeavored everyday to think what they would do when faced with a moral or ethical dilemma. I know I can no longer remain in the stasis of denial, I just have to try and live my life in such a manner, that would make me worthy of their reputations and Honor. That is how I will ensure their love, and that I will see them once again.
