“ i will always hold in my heart our walks together and how much you loved my sweet ava! when we walked and she turned the corner and you had not come out yet, she would put her brakes on and wait. on the days you didn't meet us she would go a little further, stop, turn around to look for you and then go on with the walk. she loved you so much pat and i know you knew she did! i still have the stuffed toy you gave her for valentine's day whereby you woofed her! so many memories of our conversations and how we could save the animals. i so enjoyed having lunch with you at st. rose tavern and ate the roast beef poboy's ravenously and washing them down with spicy bloody marys. i do wish you could have met my adoptee, cricket. she is so sweet pat and you would have adored her. you will be missed and thought of often. God took you when it was his time! your memory will always be loved. beverly jung
