“ I just found out about Pat's passing last week and am so sorry for your loss. "Patsy" and I were best friends at St. Theresa of Avila church in the 7th and 8th grades and continued our friendship even when we went to different high schools. We were best friends and I was honored to be maid of honor when she and Bill got married. I moved away in 1958 and we lost contact with each other. I was saddened to hear of her death but it has brought back happy memories of our friendship. I will keep her in my prayers along with all her loved ones. Anna Marie Tuma Arbo

“ We fondly remember Pat's help in our endeavors to grow Aquinas Corporation many years ago. It did not succeed but we are ever grateful to the friends that helped us try. In gratitude Pat will be remembered at the 9:30 Sunday morning mass February 3rd at St. Rita Church, Harahan and in our prayers also. Our sympathy to her family and friends and prayers for you also.
