“ I just saw that Pat passed away in March. I am so very sorry. I knew she was sick. She was always the sweet go to person at Magic Seasonings when I worked at Roadway. Pat Rest In Peace!

“ One of my Best Friends gained her Angel Wings yesterday. I have known Pat Cantrelle almost 24 years. There were Four (4) of us Deborah, Donna, Pat and myself that did everything together when our boys were younger. We had sleepovers and attended birthday parties and not to mention we would call each other to find out who had their Science or History book because one of kids always managed to “leave” their book at school except Cody Laborde!! He always had everything he needed. The other (3) well the only answer we got from them was a shrug to the shoulders. We worked the Green Park Fair, attended PTA meetings and always went to Teacher/Parent conferences. I can’t tell you how many times Bob showed up in my place and the teacher would say your wife just left. Well everyone got me and Pat confused!! We both were tall and had blonde hair and I guess our faces resembled each other even though we didn’t see it. After Green Park, we moved on to T H Harris for middle school, But we continued Boy Scouts at OLDP. Us (4) went out for coffee while our boys attended meetings. We periodically attended to learn about camping trips and awards ceremonies. Of course our table at the Awards always won because we wanted the Best of the Best!! We worked Saints games selling nachos and soft drinks and then we hosted several Boy Scouts Popcorn Sales at different stores on Saturday and Sunday to help our boys earn money for trips. As our boys grew up, and moved on to High School, us (4) stayed young. We used to go out and listen to live music and dance our legs off like we were 21 again! And every year for St Patrick’s Day the (4) of us partied all day at Parasol’s Bar and Restaurant dancing in the streets, doing green Jell-O shots and photo bombing everyone’s pics they were taking. Then we would party on Metairie Rd for the St Patrick’s parade. In between all of this we celebrated birthdays and even had a few surprise birthday parties for one of us or one of our spouses. Then we made road trips to flea markets on a Saturday and had a blast singing and dancing in the car!! We truly loved each other and we laughed all the time!! We were the (4) gurls who always had a little drama but we always made it into a party. Pat you loved life!! And us (4) loved it too! We are all going to miss you but we promise that us (3) will *continue to do all the things the way we did and you will always be part of our adventures. Love and miss you my Sweet Sista. At least you are no longer suffering and now you are pain free...

love you ❤️❤️❤️❤️*
