

Peggy (Margaret) Blake Gehbauer

April 17, 1942 - April 8, 2020

Peggy (Margaret) Blake Gehbauer entered into our divine Lord's arms on April 8, 2020. She is preceded in death by her devoted husband, Dr. Louis J. Gehbauer. She is survived by only one son, Blake Louis Gehbauer, and was from a family of 11.

Peggy was born in Gulfport, MS to William and Elizabeth Blake. She went to high school at St. Joseph Academy in Bay St. Louis and then graduated from nurses training in Vicksburg, MS. She moved to her beloved New Orleans and worked as a Register Nurse at Montelepre Hospital. She became a community/political activist. She chaired many fund raisers including charitable non profit organizations. She was Past President of Ladies Leukemia League for two consecutive years and obtained the IRS Federally tax except status during her term. She was a member of Chartered Member of Cancer Crusaders and was also President of New Orleans Republican Club for two consecutive years. She was employed in New Orleans City Council, District A, Congressman Bobby Jindal's Office, Metairie moving to the Governor's Office as Executive Director of Women' Policy and Research. Governor Jindal described her as a "Pistol". She retired in May 2012. Peggy chaired the 2000 and 2004 George W. Bush's campaign headquarters and attended both Republican Conventions. She was founding member of the "DOTS" Drugs off the Street Program under the auspices of District Attorney Harry Connick. Peggy strongly believed in God, her family and her country.
