“ I loved telling my neighbor and friend that when he walked outside the birds quit singing. It was our joke. Now, I think the they'll never sing quite the same with out him. Our hearts are broken for Darlene, Peter and Robert. And we are saddened that his grandchildren have lost someone who loved them so much.

“ My dear little brother. There are so many memories to share from the time God gave you to us to the time when you went home to be with our loving Father. Those memories are what I will hold on to. Even the ones of you teasing me from childhood right up to the end. Always making me laugh with your silly self! You were the best brother, son, husband, grandfather, uncle and friend. You amazed me with your strength through all of the challenges with your health without complaining. Rest now my brother and know that all of us will take care of Darlene, Mom, your two incredible sons, daughter in law and beautiful grandchildren. I love you!
