“ I knew Ralph through my son, Johnny and the fishing trips he took me on. Katrina came and he stopped by to see if we needed anything. we kept loosely in touch over the years and both my wife Audrey considered him a friend I will miss him.

“ *When he came to the end of his journey
And he had traveled his last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that he ever frowned
And remember only his smile.
Forget unkind words he had spoken;
Remember some good he had done.
Forget that he ever had a heartache
And remember he had loads of fun.
Forget that he stumbled and blundered
And sometimes he fell by the way,
Remember he has fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where he lay,
And come in the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside him
AND REMEMBER ONLY HIS BEST*
