Celebrating the Life of Ramon Enrique Hernandez Osorio

September 22, 1953 – June 20, 2026

Ramon Enrique Hernandez Osorio, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, uncle, father in law, brother, and friend, passed away peacefully on June 20, 2026, surrounded by the family he so deeply loved. He was 72 years old.

A Life of Purpose and Family

Born on September 22, 1953, in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Ramon was the cherished son of Ramon Enrique Hernandez Flores and Esmeralda “Nena” Osorio Mejía. He pursued his passion for agriculture, graduating from the Escuela Internacional de Agricultura y Agropecuaria in Rivas, Nicaragua.

His career began at the Tela Railroad Company in La Lima, Cortes. It was there that he met the love of his life, Olga Zulema Galindo Mayorga. The two were wed on December 17, 1977, and celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary this past December. Together, Ramon and Olga built a beautiful life and raised three children, instilling in them the core values of service to others and unconditional family devotion.

A Legacy of Joy and Love

Ramon lived a plentiful and vibrant life. He found great joy in the simple pleasures: tending to his garden, picking up his granddaughter from school, and playing with his grandson, Ryan. He was a man who brought people together, and no Christmas or New Year's celebration truly began until Ramon started the karaoke machine. He was known to all as a good man, always ready with a story to tell. In his final days, he found immense happiness simply watching the World Cup alongside his grandson, Ryan.

Family Journey & Survivors

Ramon was greeted in his heavenly journey by his parents, Ramon and Esmeralda, and his sister, Xiomara.
