“ My dad saved this poem to remind him over my mom

Beyond the Sunset

*Should you go first: and I remain to walk the road alone
I'll live in memories garden dear with happy days we've known
I'm spring i'll wait for roses red, when faded,
The lilacs blue,
In early fall when Brown leaves fall, I'll catch a glimpse of you.
Should you go first and I remain, for battles to be fought
Everything you've touched along the way will be a hollowed spot,
I'll hear your voice,
I'll see your smile
Tho blindly I may grope,
The memory of your helping hand
Will buoy my on with hope.
Should you go first and I remain one thing i'll have to do
Walk slowly down that long long path for soon I'll follow you.
I want you to know each step you take,
So I may take the same
For someday down that lonely road
You will hear me call your name.*

“ Dear grandpa.

Thank you for everything you have done for me..

You have shown me right from wrong and you raised me into the woman I am today. Words cannot express how much you mean to me and how much I will miss you.. I am so thankful for all the times we shared. I am blessed beyond measures to have had a grandfather like you. You have always been my hero. And you will always be my hero. I wish I didn't have to say goodbye, but I know I will see you again very soon. You taught me so much about the Bible and God and what I need to know to make it on this earth when you leave. If there was ever anyone in this world who deserved to go to heaven and live in his own mansion, it would be you. You have been the best grandpa that anyone can have! I know that your wings were ready, but my heart was not... I will never be ready to say goodbye to you.. I will see you soon. Until then I will hold you and our memories close to my heart. I will never forget you, even though you're really gone. I know that you are more alive than you have ever been in your whole life, and that makes me happy to know that you are finally happy. I can't imagine how you felt when you saw grandma for the first time in heaven.. I hope that the two of you are together walking down the streets of gold. You both have left behind the best love story in history. Grandpa, I love you more than words can be expressed... and every day I will think of you and talk to you and grandma.. You have been the best man of God on the face of this earth! I love you both with all of my heart and I will be seeing you both very soon. R.I.H. grandpa! And grandma.. y'all have a true love story...
