

Raymond Joseph Verdun

January 2, 1927 - October 13, 2012

Raymond Joseph Verdun passed away with family at his side on Saturday, October 13, 2012 at the age of 85 years. Beloved and devoted husband of Iris Cavanagh Verdun for 67 years. Loving father of Sylvia Metzinger (Fred) and Ramona Slagle (David). Devoted grandfather of Erin M. Collier and Emily S. Dieringer and great grandfather of Henry and Patrick Dieringer. Loving brother of Leo Verdun. Raymond is preceded in death by his parents, the late Lucien and Bridget Verdun, as well as his brothers and sisters, the late Lillian, Leroy, Ella Mae and Theodore Verdun. A lifelong resident of Jefferson Parish, Raymond was a Hoisting Engineer and member of the Union of Operating Engineers Local #406. Known throughout the neighborhood as the 'go-to-guy', he was greatly loved and will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

“ It was a privledge to have Mr. Raymond a part of my life. He was a blessing & a wonderful person. I loved to listen to his stories, & looked so forward to his visits. I will miss him dearly. Matthew 5:4 states" Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted" May God comforted you & give you peace, for as we know Mr. Raymond is walking with JESUS! Little did I realize last week when we saw Uncle Raymond in the hospital, it would be our last. He was just as funny while lying in the hospital bed telling his "life's" stories as he always was. He looked great and I truly thought he would come through this ok. He will truly be missed. He was a blessing to all who knew him. Take comfort in knowing he is walking the streets of gold, laughing and telling his stories to all who will listen. Aunt Iris, Sylvia and Romona, our thoughts and prayers are with all of you and your families at this time. We will see you all at the funeral home and in Raceland. Nancy Verdun Folds
