

Richard Henry Brown

February 7, 1952 - August 17, 2023

On Thursday, August 17, 2023, Richard (Ricky) Henry Brown passed on to the other side of this life. He was born in New Orleans, LA where he lived until he moved to Colorado with his family at the age of 45. Though the spirit of NOLA lived deep in his heart and soul and he found himself living happily there until the end of his life. Ricky was a very dedicated and passionate chef throughout his life and his cooking brought people together for many joyous occasions. Anyone who knew him can attest to his lively energy and hospitable nature; he had a way of making everyone feel like they were at home. His presence will be felt and greatly missed by his family and friends.

He is preceded in death by his father (Charles), mother (Joycelyn) and sister (Judith) and survived by his 3 children: Robert Brown (Bubba), Emily Brown and Salem Brown, his 5 grandchildren: Arron, Sadira, Connor, Dominick and Charlotte and his 3 brothers: David, Wyatt and Brad.

He had many passions in life including cooking, rock and roll music, fishing and war documentaries. He was an encyclopedia of knowledge and he loved to share all that he knew with anyone who would listen. His friends and family will especially miss all the delicious food that he made and the comforting sound of his guitar as he strummed along to his favorite songs. Ricky was an extremely loving father, "Papa" and friend who made a lasting impact on everyone who met him.

Ricky was a fisherman. When he finally returned to New Orleans to mostly retire, he did so to reconnect with his brackish water routes. He loved the gulf, the sand bars he would cast from and the pelicans alerting him of schools. Even more he loved his children and theirs, his extended family and close friends. His heart was good. He is missed more than words can express.
