

Richard Brownell Williams

November 12, 1960 - September 26, 2016

Richard Brownell Williams passed away peacefully on Monday, September 26, 2016, the birthday of his favorite the late Aunt Margie. The youngest of four children, Richard was born in New Orleans on November 12, 1960. He was preceded in death by his father Edward Blaine 'Ted' Williams, Sr. and is survived by his 93 year-old mother Mrs. M. Adele Peters Williams and his sisters M. Elise Williams (Mike) Biggs, Celeste Williams (Mike) Capielano and brother Edward 'Blaine' (Liz) Williams, Jr. Richard will be missed by his family and his longtime companion Amrit Kalika and friend and co-worker Otilia Moya.

Richard is also survived by several nephews and nieces- Michael and Angela Capielano, Jessie Thornton, Teddy and Josh Williams, Kristen Capielano (Wes) Rau, and grand-nephew and niece, Landen and Adelynn Rau.

Richard lived in Old Jefferson and attended St. Agnes School and East Jefferson High School, as well as some college at UNO. As a young man, Richard worked in the restaurant business and then moved to the northwest USA (Washington State and Oregon) where he lived for over ten years. Those years were the happiest of his life where he went camping and enjoyed the outdoors. When he returned to the New Orleans area, he worked for Rouse's of Metairie for the last several years up until his death. Richard was an avid artist and prolific painter and leaves behind numerous 'folksy' paintings of New Orleans, cats and scenes from the northwest.
