“ *Randy and Gale, I was so saddened to read of your son's passing. I did not know him but i do know the pain of losing a child. I know too that the support of family and friends does help and the faith in God to be reunited will come to you. Knowing you both thru the years I know Ricky was well loved and I know that there will be that reunion. I'm so sorry I am not able to see you personally to express my sympathy. I am so sorry. “ Ricky will be terribly missed by so many. I for one will miss his laugh and quirky sense of humor. Although we may not have spent much time together over the past years, we recently reconnected and he was the same goofy Ricky. As kids we all grew up together as "cousins", I am a big believer in the you don't have to be blood related to be family. We were all family and still are. We spent every weekend together and most holidays. We had the best childhood because of the close friendship our parents had. I can truly say we were all blessed to have the bond we did. I know mom is in heaven and waiting for Ricky as he joined so many of our loved ones, (Im sure she had her slipper in hand just in case Ricky misbehaved lol), anyone close all remember all the stories Ricky and mom would share about her taking off her slipper when he wouldn't listen! I want to say to Aunt Gail, Uncle Randy, Troy and Dana the I am so sorry for your loss. Anyone that knew the "real" Ricky will feel that loss, I know I do. I love you all with all my heart and I pray God will help you all through this difficult time. Much love, Tracy
