“ maw-maw Rita will always be remembered as the one to go to when you just needed to look for a smile, she always like to cook. never did she turn away someone who was hungry, she specially liked to host and cook during thanksgiving and Christmas. looking back at the first meal I learned: red beans and rice, she would always say cook it slow so when its ready to eat you can see the love its made from. maw-maws said that her favorite bird was the blue jays, 3 recently started to fly near my home last January, it is a sign of her visiting to let me know she is watching over me during the hard times and bring blessings as she is remembered and missed dearly.
