“ U r truly missed uncle Robert. U always had a smile no matter what was going on. I've never seen u mad and u never met a stranger. If we needed to talk to someone u always had an ear for us and made a joke to make the bad go away. U were an amazing uncle and pretty darn kool. When I would drive home from work on the 310 I always saw u in ur milk truck just a waving and smiling. I luv u more than u ever knew. Now u know how much. Always be our guardian angel and watch over us. When we need that laugh or smile I can count on u to give us that funny memory to make it all go away. Tell everyone up there I said hi and we luv and miss them to. No more pain or sickness. It's all heaven now.

“ I've know Mr. Robert for 40 years now after meeting my husband of 38yrs I was introduced to him and Mrs. Lynn. Always was such a sweet gentleman and would do anything for anyone. I'll never forget the time they lived in Bisonett apartments while my husband and I were dating and everyone was playing softball but me because my mother told me not to get hurt or I'd be in trouble. Needless to say they convinced me to pitch and their Daughter Sherry hit a line drive and it hit me square in the eye. When I got bank to Mr. Robert and Mrs Lynn's apartment to ice it down I said I did not want to go home because my mom was going to kill me and both of them said - aww no your gonna be ok she might be upset for a second but it's gonna be ok!

FLY HIGH MR ROBERT TILL WE MEET AGAIN!! BE THE GUARDIAN ANGEL THAT YOUR FAMILY NEEDS YOU TO BE.
GOD WATCH OVER, PROTECT AND GIVE COMFORT TO THE FAMILY OF MR ROBERT DURING THEIR TOME OF SORROW. IN JESUS NAME I PRAY.. AMEN
