“ My deepest condolences. Bob was a great guy that taught me how to do specific tasks the right way, and I remember him telling me to stick to this because he saw something in me . It always stuck with me and till this day I speak his lessons to some of my crew when I'm trying to teach them. I truly can't explain what his guidance meant to me and how he accepted me in to his inner working circle at my young age. We solute you my friend and god bless.
