“ Bob, I'm so sorry that I found out about this almost two years later. My memory of you is just what a good man you were to my grandmother. I never knew my grandfather from my dads side, and in a way you were like my granddad. Thank you for what a great man you were, and much love from me to you. See you again someday in the future.

“ Uncle Bob, you were always a joy to be around even though I would have to repeat myself a few times when I would be speaking to you, lol. And you would always laugh and smile. When Alyiah and I would come over almost everyday you would always say "hey babe" to the both of us and offer alyiah cookies. You will be tremendously missed by many. We always spending time with you too. Love Katy and Alyiah

“ Dear Uncle Bob

Even though I have never met you, through Jeanne' I feel I have known you my whole life. Jeanne' always spoke kind words about you. She especially loved to go to dinner with you and hear you sing to the other patrons. We all know you are in a better place with your family and the love of your life who have passed before you. Your family here will miss you dearly. I always told Jeanne' " I wish I had an Uncle Bob, just like you!!!!

Jeanne's forever friend

“ Uncle Bob, Words can not express what kind of a man you were. As a young man of 16 when your father took sick you went to work to support your family. Then when you found the love of your life you were by her side till she passed. When our daddy died you stepped in and was always there for us. Never did you hesitate when anyone needed you. You told me how much you missed all your loved ones and friends who have passed before you. I can't thank you enough for being like a dad to me. Climb aboard that wonderful train in heaven and enjoy your ride with the Lord and all your family and friends you missed so dearly. I love you and will miss you so much until we meet again. Love, Jeanne
