“ Bob was a good neighbor as we lived next door in Metairie for nearly 29 years. He was always busy with projects about his home, but never too busy to lend a hand or give advice when some question arose on a project we had.

When we saw Bob on a ladder or on top of his house, you forgot that he had lost a leg in WWII. We never heard him complain about this handicap and he continued his life with optimism and the thought he could do anything that he wanted to do.

Bob's oldest Daughter Carey and our Daughter Carla grew up together and are still friends. Our heartfelt comfort and support go out to Carey, Katie and Stephen and their families and know that God will help them through this difficult time in their lives.
