

Roger "Lil' RJ" Guedry Jr.

August 14, 1975 - November 4, 2024

Roger (RJ) "Lil' RJ" Joseph Guedry, Jr. entered the gates of Heaven on Monday, with angels by his side, November 4, 2024. At the age of 49. He was born in New Orleans, LA and a resident his entire life in New Sarpy, LA. RJ was a man of little words (at times)! One of his favorite moto's that he always told me was "preparation is KEY!" He was a guardian over the ones he loved, he loved so many family and friends!

He loved outdoors, camping (for sure!) and he grew up on all ATVs.

Everything was about his family and friends. Growing up, waking up at a house with family for sleep overs made him so happy. They would go outside and play...YES!!! riding bikes, jumping ramps, and whatever him and his cousins/friends could find to jump over, skateboarding, his love for music, good old fashion campfire. He loved to fish at his family's camp in Waveland, MS..... with memories of his grandmother (MawMaw Guedry) using hot dogs and bread was one of his favorite things to do. He was a climber, with a fascination for climbing trees or whatever he could. His nephews could vouch for that as well as my mom (Michele R.). He enjoyed when my mom would take us and the boys (my nephews) camping every summer. There are so many things that need to be said about RJ a book would need to be published!

Beloved husband of Heather Legnon Guedry. Son of Roger Joseph Guedry Sr. and Sonya DeCorte.

Preceded in death by his beloved sister Bridgette Guedry White Rodriquez, beloved cousin Shane Roy: Grandparents, Roger A. Guedry Jr., Theresa Duplessis Guedry, Frank J. DeCorte Sr., Audrey DeCorte, Sandra DeCorte Sills (aunt)

Survived by DeCorte side ~ Sylvia DeCorte Deroche, Frank J. DeCorte, Jr. (wife, Barbara) Robert J. DeCorte (wife, Liz), Kenny DeCorte

RJ was blessed to have many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends... just too many to name! He loved each and everyone of y'all!

“ This is a hard one. The memories we have are huge and could write books. We have spent so much time together. From gymnastics in the yard for hours and hours at a time, to our summers in Mississippi, and our many days at grandma and grandpa's house to you letting me pick the movie at night and you sleeping close In the same room as I was always a scaredy cat. The stories you would tell me if someone was to come in to get me, still make me giggle. You were always that protective over family. No matter how long it took for us to see each other, we picked up where we left off. You never saw me without telling me you love me. You were just amazing. I'm glad I was able to spend time with you recently. I will hold those times close in my heart. You were so brave. No complaints other than to go home. I'm going to forever miss you and Bridgette. This is a hole in my heart that can never be repaired. I know you are watching over your beautiful wife, your mom and Dad. But you will catch me throwing you kisses to heaven. Rest easy sweetheart. I love you.
