“ A Client wanted us to move a mature Savannah Holly Tree 8 feet. Ron Terry and I dug for hours. Then the true effort began, lifting the Tree out of its hole to get in its new hole. Well, Thank God for Ron Meeks. He was the savior of the day. Strong is an understatement. That's what I remember about Ron His strength both inner and outer. Thank you, Sandra and his entire family, for sharing Ron with the Me and the rest of the world. My friend I know I will see you again. Much Love Timmy Martin

“ So sorry for your loss. I only knew Ron on Facebook, but always read his inspirational posts. He always so positive in his outlook and so supportive of others. I could tell he was a good man, just from his posts.

“ Never knew Ron personally, but talked to him several times on the Pulmonary Fibrosis website. Such a thoughtful, caring man! He loved his family so much, and was such an encouragement to all who are suffering from pulmonary fibrosis. He was worried about being forgotten? Never! Hold onto your memories and may God comfort each of you!

“ Ron offered kind, thoughtful, and meaningful support and advice to his fellow IPF Warriors Facebook family - a light during dark times. He was one of many who helped me through the sudden passing of my father. His kind and compassionate heart will be missed.
