“ To the king I called my brother, my friend and neighbor for years just know I will be here for your wife and sons as I know you would if I was called upon by the lord. It's so much I can say about our long talks and Conversations about life and how can we make it better for our family's that I'm going to miss the most. I pray for Trina and the boys as they try to find peace at a not so peaceful time. We love y'all and we will step up in your absent family through Christ family for life.

“ Trina and family,

We are so very deeply sorry for your great loss and your broken hearts. God bless you all.

I can't imagine what your Mother in law is going through, God give her the strength she needs. Her beautiful grandsons and beautiful great grandchildren will mend her broken heart.

I am hoping you all can find peace of mind and acceptance during this very difficult time.

*Take care,
The Mejia Family*

“ Pops, always filling the room with joy and happiness. All the times coming over to the crib and tailgates he was always having the best conversations. I will miss him so much and I know he will be looking down on friends, family, and his loved ones smiling. I wish i could cook with him and share more stories with him! See you later Pops! Love you brother!
