“ Uncle Ronnie aka creature , your were one of my favorite uncles. You always joked with me which is how I gave you the name creature. You were the life of family get togethers and holidays especially New year's Eve. You were one crazy man that's for sure and so full of life. I'm going to miss going by maw maw's and picking with you, telling you I'm going to shave that beard when your sleeping . It sucks living so far with times like these , I wish I could have spent more time with you. I'll forever cherish the memories of you. We're all going to miss you so much! Until we meet again old man 🙏💙🙏 love you creature !

“ My Brother Ronnie, so many memories. You will be missed by me and so many others. Every new year you would throw a beautiful fire works
Display. I don't care if it was raining or foggy, the show still went on. I still have a lot of memories On Iowa st.. We had no worries in our younger years. You would always joke with everyone and make them wonder just to get them to laugh. Every time we went out together You had my back and I had yours. You would always barbecue to feed the family and of course it took a few beers to cook all that meat for everyone. I will miss those days we would reminisce about certain subjects. Anyway brother I will always be thinking of you and miss your smile! Love You Brother.

“ Ronnie loved to put a smile on everyone's face. He loved to joke with me & most times he practical joked me & I always fell for it. He would laugh & say girl I got you good! I love my brother in law. He was a great person. Ronnie lit up the sky every year with his fireworks. We always enjoyed his huge firework display! We had many many Happy New Years because of Ronnie!
