

Rose Marie Ciancimino

August 4, 1933 - June 16, 2023

Rose M. Ciancimino, 89 entered into eternal rest in the early morning hours of Friday, June 16, 2023 at her home, surrounded by family and close friends, after a quick and very aggressive reoccurrence of breast cancer.

Born and raised in Brooklyn, NY, Rose later moved with her “husband, lover and best friend” and their much loved and adored daughters to Kenner, La. in 1979. She worked for many years for First NBC.

Rose is survived by her husband of 66 years, Anthony J. Ciancimino and four daughters: Susan Ciancimino Payne (Mikel), Diane Ciancimino Bordelon (David), Lisa and Kerri Ciancimino. She is also survived by her Brother-in-law Joseph Ciancimino (Victoria) and Sister-in-law Maryanne Ciancimino Boody, and grandchildren Kenneth Payne and Margie Payne Oser (Micha), Julia and Zachary Bordelon, Kristen Herrate (Diego), Montana Battiste, and her great-grandchildren Aedan, Logan and Ava Tapia and Jacob and Lucas Oser, as well as her many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her Mother Mary Scandutto Piccioli and Step-father, Charlie Piccioli, Father-in-law Anthony Ciancimino and Mother-in-law Josephine Ciancimino, and her four half-brothers, Nichols, Paul, Joseph and Frank Montalbano.

For Rose, a true Italian Catholic, Sunday dinners and holidays were special. She would wake up early and cook a huge meal. Family and friends would gather around the extra-long dining room table where the conversation would last for hours. Rose was much loved by her family and her dearest friends Samuel and Harriet Hillson.

Before her passing, Rose requested that in lieu of flowers, donations should be made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital or donations of blood and platelets in her name to East Jefferson Hospital or any blood bank.

A celebration of Rose's life will take place at L. A. Muhleisen & Son Funeral Home, 2607 Williams Blvd., Kenner, on Tuesday, June 20, 2023. Visitation from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. followed by a short prayer service officiated by Deacon Drea Capaci at 4:00 p.m.

“ Dear Mr. Tony, Susan, Diane, Lisa, and Kerri,
Rose was a beautiful soul, caring, loving, and devoted to family. She lived a full life and always had a smile on her face to brighten your day. She did things her way in a true Italian, Brooklyn, New York style. She was like a second mom ready to share her wisdom. “Momma Rose” will be missed. May the angels welcome her to heaven and present her to God. By now, she’s probably organizing and cooking a Sunday dinner, just like always. May you, your family, and friends find peace and comfort knowing Rose rests in Jesus’ loving arms. With our deepest sympathy, love, and prayers, Louise & Allen Kincannon

“ My sister from another Mother, Susan, would invite me to her Mother's to join the family on Sunday's or holidays. As a single person there was always Momma Rose & Tony who would take you in as family. When I married, it was no different, both my wife & I were welcome. We will deeply miss Momma Rose, she sure was an uniquely special person. She always let you know straight up how she felt about a topic, sometimes serious other times not. At the end of the day you couldn't help loving her no matter. We will miss you but we will give further life in remembrance. Our deepest condolences to family & friends. Love Tommy & Marie Piotrowski.
