“Rose and I were first cousins. Our Dads were brothers (Jules and Harold). We grew up 3 blocks away from each other in the city, until I moved away at 10 years old and she was 14. She would walk to my house, and we would play together all day...hide and seek, jacks, board games, etc. I loved her. We didn't see each other much as adults, but I always thought of her and still loved her. Darlene Frederic
