“ I am so thankful to have met honey and rose, they were a delightful couple. so sweet and kind to one another and to those who knew them. Although it is never easy to loose a loved one i know that rose has reunited with family who have gone before her. Brother frank, niece francine and her "honey" george. rest in peace sweet rose we will miss you.

“ I will always remember the love she had for George ("Ma Honey"), Francine, Kayden and all her family. She was so proud of my son James, Kayden's dad. She often remarked "honey child, he is a good dad, just taking over and raising Kayden on his own". Her daily prayer reached all of us and we are so grateful. Love you Rose.
