“ Dear Sharon,

I was amazed to learn of your Mom's passing so soon after we found ourselves sitting next to one another in church after so many years...must have been a Divine Appointment! I pray that the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, will be that for you during this Christmas Season and for as long as you need Him to heal your sorrow. Your Mother is beautiful!

Love,

Darlene Centanni

“ A Rose, is a Rose; is a Rose.....

You were always the “ROSE” amongst the Water Lilies Aerobic Class at Elmwood.

You will be sorely missed by all those whom you touched with your: wit, kindness, generosity, wisdom, devotion, faithfulness and hundreds more attributes you possessed too numerous to list here that are imprinted on my heart.

I know how much you suffered dearest, both physically and mentally through a lengthy illness.

You are now in a better place resting in the peace that surpasses all understanding and awaiting your new glorified body. I hope to be singing Alleluia with you one day in that heavenly choir my friend.

Until then I will pray, pray for you, your family and your friends as they mourn your passing.

Requiescat in Pace ROSE!

“ Love you, Granny. We miss you so much, but I know you are free & feeling so great now--back to traveling, dancing, cooking, & painting. "I love you more than you know"--your last words to me will always stay in my mind & my heart. Love you!!~Angela “ Granny was like a second mother to me. She learned from the best and taught us to be the best. The family will never be the same without her, but we know she'll be with us in spirit and watching over us until we are brought together again. I will always love you, my Shorty.

Actually that was Isabella's stinky diaper I accidentally left in Granny's rm. That was hilarious. Thanks for this laugh!

“ My dear cousins and Uncle Sal, please accept my deepest condolences. Aunt Rose was so special to so many and the imprint she made on our hearts is one that will last a lifetime. I always admired the closeness of Aunt Rose and Uncle Sals family, so beautiful and rare, which speaks to the incredible dedication of two loving parents for each other and their children. Your loving niece, Angela

“I have known Aunt Rose all my life. She was a quiet, but fun person, the wife of my godfather that I loved and will continue to love. Walter and I are in virginia and can't make it to help lay her to rest. To Wayne, Sharon, Dennis, Cathy, Brian, and especially my Parran Uncle Sal, I want to tell you how sorry I am to hear of this great loss. A mother is irreplaceable. Love to you all, Ava
