Randy & Sandra I am really going to miss talking to your mom. Every time she called and we were not at home she would always leave the same message saying "Glenda" have Eddie call aunt Rose. After our conversation she would always end with I love you and give Glenda a kiss for me. She was really a very sweet person. She is now at peace with our mom Shirley, her brother Walter, sisters Clare, Louise and Rita and her mom and dad John and Amelia. We will miss her.

Randy and Sandra, I have so many wonderful memories of your Mother Rosemary. She wasn't just a neighbor, she was a part of our family. She spent many Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners with us. Rosemary would always say, oh I can't eat that and I'd say 'what the heck a little won't hurt'. I Love you Rosemay and there will always be a place in my heart for you.

Randy and Sandra I was so sorry to hear of your mother's recent passing. She was a special person to me and I will miss our little visits on Thursday mornings. She spoke of you both often and how good you were to her. I have a commitment on Tuesday morning that I cannot change, but you will be in my thoughts and prayers.
