“ She will be missed. When the Nobles played at the Treasure Chest, Ms. Swanson would dance, laugh and get on stage for one song with the band. She was a nice lady and lived life to the fullest. May she rest in peace..

“ I didn't know Ruth very well, but I admired her "party" personality. I have watch her many times, at Treasure Chest, dancing her heart out. She was an inspiration to dance our problems away and just have fun. She will be greatly missed.
