“ I worked with Ryan at Monsanto for years. We at Monsanto are all just hearing about this. I'm so vvvry sorry for the family's loss.

He was a wonderful person, so likeable, kind and hard-wirking, and he has been missed. I was laid off from Monsanto at the same time and we kept in touch through Facebook.

“ I met Ryan back in 2003 on Final Fantasy XI (an MMO video game) and he was a wonderful, helping, and caring person. He was always there for me when others weren't. Ryan was so kind to my boyfriend and me, he always made me laugh with his funny jokes and was so easy to talk to. So many others in this game who knew him would agree with me, he was such a special person, he will never be forgotten. My deepest condolences to his family and friends, he will always be in our hearts. Much love,

“ Only knew Ryan under his online name/gaming activities. Knew him off & on for over 15 years. Wonderful guy & always charitable & helpful under any circumstance. Never one to shy away from a conversation & fully capable of wit & humor to lighten a mood. His was a contribution for the enjoyment & happiness of hundreds if not thousands of fellow players. He is missed by many & will never be forgotten. My condolences to all who are his family & those whose lives he has touched.

“ The entire family is in my prayers. I have so many fond memories of Ryan and every one of them involves his genuine spirit and sense of humor. He had a way with people and his heart was gold. I will always remember him that way - the light in the room. I'm so very sorry he is no longer with us and send you all my deepest sympathy. I have always loved the Kane family so very much and wish I was there to hug each of you. I will visit soon. You are wonderful, supportive, loving family members and Ryan was a lucky son and brother to grow through life with your guidance, love, and support. My sincerest condolences from NC. “ Ryan was like a son to us. We really enjoyed his visits and how much he enjoyed my gumbo. He was a great guy and he touched everyone with his intelligence, smile and how much he enjoyed helping others. He always took time to talk to us during his visits with Roger. Words cannot describe how much he has touched our lives and how much we will miss him so dearly. We are so sorry for your loss.
