“ Sandy was my Aunt Buzzy. You know why I called her Buzzy? Because when I was little I couldn't pronounce esses. So Sandy became Buzzy.

So when I was little, Buzzy and Ooie (Susan - again couldn't say esses) used to take me on their errands. And I used to love going because they always made it so fun. On those trips we usually listened to her favorite band Queen. So Buzz also helped shaped my taste in music. I know so much about Queen it's ridiculous - all cause of Buzzy.

Sandy was also my godmother. And she always supported me in everything I did. She loved me unconditionally and I loved her right back. Even recently she was thanking me for my support and in my mind I was like "where do you think I got it from? You."

I'll never forget the trips to the Smokies or going to Biloxi to go see Elton John or Englebert Humperdinck (where she teased me for being the youngest person in the room). Wonderful times with my Buzzy.

And she loved her cats Sidney and Callie. I'm sure she's playing with them right now.

So please say hello to Ooie, Michelle, and the cats for me. I love you Buzz.
