“ Well brother-in-law it looks like you beat me to get to ride the train to Glory Land. I know life is a struggle and I have had some of those same struggles on my own and with you. But we always seemed to make it through the storm and at the time we did not know that it was the grace of Almighty God who carried us to safety. And some of the things we engaged in when we were younger I am ashamed to tell anyone or talk about it, but it was God’s grace and mercy that brought us through the fray and I now see that clearly. I am upset that you did not call me back that night, I needed to talk to you and just maybe I could have made things different or maybe there would have been a different outcome. There I go again thinking with a mortal mind. Jesus called you home and that was predestined before the foundation of the world and that is what I believe. We as mortals think we can change the future and maybe we can but God with his omnipotent, omniscience, and omnipresence knows all that has been and is to come and shall be for evermore. The Father knows the number of hairs on our heads and how many grains of sand are on the beach. So my beloved friend you have run your race and the Lord Jesus has called you to your true home, you were an alien on this earth and in this world. It is your gain and our lost, we as mortals want you here with us and do not consider what the Creator of everything you see including the galaxy through a telescope has preplanned for us. And to our Lord, Savior, and King Jesus who I think is in the tattoo shop now getting “King of Kings and Lord of Lords” tattooed down his thighs as the Word says it will be there when he comes back and that my friends will be a glorious day brother. That is how close to the end I think we are the Lord Jesus is preparing to fulfill prophecy with the words “King of Kings and Lord of Lords” down his thigh. And for some of you folks reading this note to Scotty saying what is this Jesus, salvation, and the other crazy things this guy is saying all about, to you my friend I suggest you attend a Bible preaching and believing church and let the Holy Spirit unveil your eyes for the sermon and tug at your heart at the end of the service for the Invitation or Alter Call and that urge is strong for you to go up front when they call, “go, please go” and “get some Jesus”. You will never be the same for eternity I promise

you. Anyway I could go on for ever and just keep writing but as the Mercy Me song presents some questions in the lyrics of the song that was primarily a Christian song and was also played on secular station and people got a little taste of who he was "As I stand in your present, to my knees will I fall, will I sing Hallelujah, or will I be able to speak at all, I can only imagine". As mortals we don't know the answers to these questions, but my brother in Christ Scotty does. When he left and passed he was absent from his earthly body and present with the Lord, and when that happens we put on the mind of Christ and has the infinite wisdom of Christ Jesus. And John 14:6 Jesus said that he and he alone is "the way, the truth, and the life and no man or woman gets to the Father but through him. I know now that it sound like whatever and not to preach fire and brimstone but the punishment is being separated from God for eternity and fire and brimstone. Now for the only man on this earth to say that he has to be a lunatic, liar, or he is truly the Son of God and Lord of all, amen. That is the problem with salvation, it's really not a problem but it is so simple that people stumble over it. All you have to do is ask it's free, a gift, of grace and mercy. And believe that Jesus is truly the Son of God, was born of the Virgin Mary, died, was buried for three days and was resurrected by the Holy Spirit and is now seated at the right hand of the Father. You cannot clean yourself up and there is no sin that the Lord has not seen and has forgiven you all you have to do is ask. Jesus

And John 14:6 Jesus said that he and he alone is "the way, the truth, and the life and no man or woman gets to the Father but through him. I know now that it sound like whatever and not to preach fire and brimstone but the punishment is being separated from God for eternity and fire and brimstone. Now for the only man on this earth to say that he has to be a lunatic, liar, or he is truly the Son of God and Lord of all, amen. That is the problem with salvation, it's really not a problem but it is so simple that people stumble over it. All you have to do is ask it's free, a gift, of grace and mercy. And believe that Jesus is truly the Son of God, was born of the Virgin Mary, died, was buried for three days and was resurrected by the Holy Spirit and is now seated at the right hand of the Father. You cannot clean yourself up and there is no sin that the Lord has not seen and has forgiven you all you have to do is ask. Jesus said come as you are you cannot work your way into Heaven but the blood that Jesus shed at Golgotha was for every sin past, present, and the future. "Everything was made for him, by Him, and of Him without Him nothing would have been made. "In Him was the life, and that life was the light of all men. You can bring light into darkness but you cannot bring darkness in to light and make it dark, amen Lord. Let me share on more of my favorite scriptures Philippians 3:8, paraphrased "nothing compares to the greatness of knowing the Lord Jesus Christ," nothing. Not anything you have accomplished, been given, or giving to others anything you can do or have done does not compare to the greatness of knowing King Jesus. So these are some pretty strong statement in my opinion. But when me and Stacy, his wife brought him up to the Homes of Grace in Vancleave, Ms. And after his stay for a month or two or three he came out of there shining and you could see the Holy Spirit all over him, he had excepted Jesus as his Savior, and knew the truth, amen, praise God. Ok enough about Scotty being saved because I am sure of it once your name is stamped in the Lambs Book of Life it can not be removed or blotted out and the Holy Spirit is deposited in you which Jesus said he was going to do. "I am going away to prepare a place for you but I will send someone just like me, you will do greater miracle than I. But as I said before Scott accepted Jesus' grace and mercy for paying his sin debt in full for him and everyone else on this earth past, present, and future. Scott's vail was lifted and he saw the Truth, God Gospel truth that our Lord, Savior, and our King is All Consuming Fire and what he said and did during his ministry on earth is 100% truth, thank God and Jesus. It is hard for me to understand why everyone does not want that to be on the winning team because that is what is going to ultimately going to happen. Satan will be judged and sentenced for thinking he could usurp the Throne of All Mighty God and legally rule. So the Father cast him down to Earth and one third of the angelic being, angels that Satan lied to get them to follow him. That also means the there are two thirds angels defending Heaven. But Satan has been trying to set up a legal rule and rain of a legal government for about the last 6000 years. I am a pre rapture believer and we will be snatched out of here to meet the Lord in the air. And no that is not when Jesus comes back it is after the 7 year Great Tribulation, then Jesus and all the Christians in Heaven will return with him to lock down Satan for 1000 years, he will be turned loose for a short time then chained down for eternity, amen Jesus. But if by some chance it happens in the next couple of hours Scotty you will have to go into battle without me brother. But I hope I have a little more time, I will miss you and I love you as my own, and we are Brothers in Christ as we are Brother- in Laws. My mortal mind want you here with us but I am sure you are doing just fine absent form you earthly body and present with the Lord, and .Your untimely death was your gain and our lost as the Apostle Paul said. So I can assure everyone that our mutual friend Scotty Kent is alive and doing well at the "Big big house with lots a lots of rooms, it has a big big table with lots of lots a food, and a big big yard where he can play football, and it's our Fathers house, amen. I have lost three people very dear to me in the last three months. It has been the worst end of a year for me ever, there is that mortal thinking because I know for a fact that all three have been clothes with richness and are waiting to return with the Lord Jesus. I lost my Dad in October, Scotty in November and another buddy that I have known for latterly 48 or 49 years and he has left behind small children like my niece aka Baby J aka Boogie Tunes, Jayden that break my heart. But my Daddy lived a long full life to the age of 83, my buddy Randy lived to the age of 57 years young and Scotty to 48 years young. I am 55 and I can truly say I di not intend to live this long myself because of the way I use to live life hard, fast and wide open all the time. But at this age what I have had to deal with is that I am not 30 anymore and I can't pour concrete from 12 to 18, 20 hours a day 5 to 6 days a week. That has been my biggest challenge is to come to the realization that I am not the person that I use to be and I can not perform the task that I did for most of my adult life. I am sorry people but like I said I have buried three people very dear to me in the last three months and I just got on a role, sorry. And I have been pallbearer for many close friends and relatives in the past years and it is funny that as wide open as I was everyone was sure I was going to be the first to go but God has a predestined plan for us before the foundation of the world. He knows it because the Father is omniscience, omnipotent, and omnipresent and that is just not reasonable for us mortals. I love you Scotty Kent and I will miss you immensely as for your family, they have at one time or another spent more time with me and Sherry than they did at their home. Stacey my (W2), Chrissa, Justin and my baby girl Boogie Tunes I will always love you my family and I are here for you always as we have been in the past. Stacey Mae the Father can do more for you than Scott can not to say that Scott couldn't do it, The Father has just called Scotty home before us and it is his perfect plan, and I know that sounds crazy and hard to understand but with his infinite wisdom He know what we need and when we need it. When we leave this body and get our resurrected body and put on the mind of Christ it will all be clear and we will understand why our very good Husband, Father, Uncle, Brother-in-law and brother in Christ Scotty was called home early as far as we think of the matter. I guess I better rap this little rant up and move on and look for my turn to ride the train to Glory Land. To my dear friend, brother-in-law, and my brother in Christ, I love you, I will miss you all of you the Good the Bad and the Ugly but I have to just remind myself that I will be joining you shortly and this is not my home either, I am an alien here too. So peace out and I will see you soon, we will all see you soon. Peace.
