“ Can't believe it's over 5 years now. I still think of Shawn daily. His pic. Is in the toplayer I use. I pass the spot he took his last breath. I was with him that day. Me and BoBo, wishing we could do something, anything. He was just so broken. I'm so sorry. We all still and always will have him in our hearts and minds

“ Shawn was a car guy best friend. He would come and wrench with you after a long shift at work and gave you his opinion regardless if you wanted to hear it or not. He was a small guy but had the Biggest Heart!

In December he called me out of the blue. He said "I ain't seen you or that car of yours in months. What-cha do wreck it racing in the parking lot!" We talked for a while and I told him that I would try to make a cruise nite in 2011 so we could catch up.

Shawn... you will always be in my thoughts and the one thing I will miss hearing you say;

"What's up Al... Hit anymore of them cones... you Crazy-Ass Chinaman! You know it's driver's like you that give your people a bad rap!"

I will miss you!

“Wow, life is never certain, but one thing that was certain is Shawn always smiling and ready to help. Great guy who's time was too short on earth. He was a blast to travel with on the long and winding roads of the Hot Rod Power Tour. Laurinda and I will miss you buddy.

“I really was impressed with how great of a father he was and how much he loves his daughter. We would sit down and eat with them after cruise nights at Juke Box and he was so hands on. He will be missed not only as a Father, Son, Family Member but as a Friend by everyone. I'm so sorry for your loss.
