“ Shirley was beautiful inside and out. John and I got to know her through Steven and Maria and we were included in many family and holiday celebrations. Shirley was generous and loving as well as honest. She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ This lovely soul was basically my second mom throughout my teen years until my young adult hood. I was treated like one of her own she called me out when I needed it and she also praised me When it was suited. She was loving, caring and witty and I will forever love this woman she was such a great influence in my life. Fly hi Miss Shirley you will always be loved in forever Missed.
